After many years of trouble over the expenses of athletes to meetings a distance from their homes, the A. A. U has at last taken definite steps toward the inclusion of a rule which will cover the vexed question. In future there will be no underhand dealing between the managers of athletic meets and visiting athletes, neither will it be possible for the athletes to overcharge the managers as to railroad fare and other After five and one-half hours of playing. hecessary items, such as hotels, and the ninth game between Dr. Lasker and so on. The new rule stipulates that the

Golden Eagle Lager

Prominent Brewers

Everywhere admit that lager of finest quality cannot be sold to dealers at prices prevailing in this city.

The great expense involved in maintaining the HIGHEST STANDARD OF QUALITY in GOLDEN EAGLE LAGER naturally increases the cost TO DEALERS.

The price of "GOLDEN EAGLE" to the consumer is 5c per glass, the same as other lagers. Call for GOLDEN EAGLE LAGER and get THE FINEST at the price of the inferior.
